Versus
United Potteries & Glassware
Agencies & Ors. ...Respondents

Mr. Vinod Shetty, for the Petitioner
Mr. S.C.Naidu along with Manoj Gujar & Ronak Shah i/b. C.R. Naidu & Co., for Respondents.

CORAM: F.I. REBELLO, J.
DATE : 30th November,2004

P.C.:

1. Petition has been filed to challenge the orders of the Courts below which have held that the enquiry conducted is fair and proper and that the findings are not perverse. The matter is still pending before the Tribunal for decision.

2. Considering the above, learned Counsel seeks to withdraw the petition with leave to challenge the order involved in this petition if he is finally aggrieved with the final order passed by the Labour Court.

3. In the light of that the following order:-

Petition allowed to be withdrawn with liberty as prayed for to challenge the impugned order, along with the final order on all grounds that may be available if the petitioner is finally aggrieved by the final order passed by the Labour Court. Rule discharged. No order as to costs.
